Voting in a Presidential and Voter-Nominated Primary Election

Every four years, political parties have a say as to who will be allowed to vote on their party's presidential candidates. The upcoming Primary Election is no different. This year the DEMOCRATIC PARTY, AMERICAN INDEPENDENT PARTY and LIBERTARIAN PARTY have chosen to "open" their ballot to Nonpartisan voters - also known as - No Party Preference voters. As a registered Nonpartisan voter, you MAY select one of these political party ballots.

By selecting one of the political party ballots, you will be able to vote for that party's presidential candidates in addition to candidates for voter-nominated ("top two") and nonpartisan offices and measures. Selecting one of these political party ballots will not register you with that party.

The REPUBLICAN PARTY, GREEN PARTY, and PEACE & FREEDOM PARTY have chosen to "close" their ballot to only those registered with their party. As a Nonpartisan voter, you will NOT be able to select one of these political party ballots, unless you re-register with the political party by May 23, 2016. You can re-register to vote at sdvote.com.

Most offices previously known as "partisan" are now known as "voter-nominated" (or "top two") offices. Voter-nominated offices include U.S. congressional offices and state legislative offices. The "top two" vote-getters in these contests will advance to the November general election. They may both be registered with the same party or they may be registered with different parties.

For information provided by the State regarding the above mentioned political parties, please call (800) 345-8683.

DUNCAN HUNTER
U.S. Representative

I am honored to serve you in the U.S. House of Representatives.

American families and workers are impacted everyday by the decisions that are made in Washington, DC. For the last seven years, I have stood on the side of limiting government influence, empowering workers, and allowing families to keep more of their hard-earned money.

With your support, I will continue to promote and defend the best interests of our community and the nation.

As a Marine Corps veteran, I served two tours in Iraq and a third in Afghanistan, and this experience continues to inform my perspective on national security. I firmly believe in the principle of peace through strength, and I recognize America's role as a world leader. I am also an uncompromising defender of our troops, their families and our veterans.

Economically, we also face strong competition on the world stage, but the innovation of the American entrepreneur, the spirit and work ethic of the American worker, and the power of the American economy continue to provide us every advantage. I remain committed to strengthening our workforce and restoring manufacturing jobs. I also oppose borrowing one more dollar from China to finance our debt or new government spending.

Other priorities of mine include: securing our borders and enforcing existing laws; achieving energy independence; eliminating job-threatening regulations and taxes; emphasizing education for a global economy; and upholding core values.

I ask for your support. Together, we will continue the fight for the ideals that make America so exceptional.

PATRICK MALLOY AGE: 49
Small Business Owner/ Real Estate Specialist

It is time to reignite the American dream. Our country has done it before with Eisenhower's interstate highway system and Kennedy's race to the moon. But when was the last time we have seen this inspiration and vision?

As a real estate specialist, Patrick Malloy is expert at seeing the aspirations of young families and making their dreams materialize. And, Patrick has dreams for southern California including investments in infrastructure to repair roads, streamline transportation systems, and even bury power lines to reduce wildfires. Patrick will initiate a bipartisan bill to rebuild crumbling infrastructure and create local jobs during his first month in office.

Patrick's other priorities include: 1) providing one year of free tuition for all seeking vocational education so the talent for rebuilding America will be available; 2) reducing student debt so the backbreaking 7% average interest rate is closer to the 3% government debt rate; 3) enforcing rules against hiring undocumented immigrants so Americans regain their rightful place in the workforce; 4) increase the Federal minimum wage and earned sick leave, and 5) safeguarding Social Security and Medicare.

Patrick's priorities match our community's needs. Isn't it time for inspiration, intelligence and vision in Congress? Patrick Malloy, a proven leader, has all of these. He will be a fresh, thoughtful, positive voice in Congress. Give Malloy a chance, and together we can reignite the American Dream.

Vote Patrick Malloy for US Congress.

SCOTT C. MEISTERLIN AGE: 59

Businessman/Retired Attorney

I'm a very concerned American. It's apparent there's dysfunction in Washington which is preventing critical work from getting done. I'm committed to helping address and remedy this important problem.

Let's put common sense back in government, including real efforts to eliminate waste and corruption, fix the tax code, balance the budget, replace Obamacare with something better, set policies which encourage economic growth, and constitutionally limit the power and scope of government. Additionally, our Constitutional rights must be protected!

I oppose Common Core and believe elected representatives shouldn't give themselves substantial benefits not shared by the people they represent.

Public safety being the highest of governmental functions, national defense must come first. Our borders must be properly secured and we must significantly invest in and re-invigorate our military. Internally, with illegal immigration and drugs, among other things, our country requires the proper enforcement of our laws.

We need to put "God" back in America as has been our nation's tradition since founded. I believe the current political bias against Christianity and toward Atheism, for example, is discriminatory and unconstitutional.

Positive cultural contributions make our country great; I believe all people should be treated respectfully while upholding our laws and Constitution. I do support English being the official language of the U.S.A.

"We the People" are responsible for who we elect; your vote counts to Make a Difference.

Thank you for your support; I look forward to working for you to get positive things done and Making Our Country Great Again!

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DAVID B. SECOR AGE: 68

Retired Superior Court Clerk

It's a unique year in American politics. Voters across the nation are rising up. They see current establishment politics will never provide opportunity for all the People. They are correct.

The system is rigged. Virtually all political activity is controlled by and intended to benefit not the People, but major corporations, banks, lobbyists and the elite donor class. This flood of contributions has been very effective for them. But for over 30 years, the People have seen wages stagnate, good-paying jobs vanish, families and small businesses stressed to the breaking point. Enough is enough.

My proposal is simple: In Congress, as in life, you work for who pays you. I take no donations from corporations or special interests, only contributions from individuals and none over $200. My sole employers are the People.

Businesses need customers. Health insurance financially cripples individuals, families and small business owners. As every other advanced nation has learned, only a much cheaper Single Payer Plan removes that burden. A $15/hr. minimum wage means workers can become customers, too. A much-needed $1 trillion investment in infrastructure means 13 million jobs in America, using American-made materials.

As a combat veteran (1st Air Cavalry Division, Vietnam, 1968-69) I know the ultimate outcome of war in the Middle East, as it was in Vietnam, will be determined by the people who live there, not by a massive U.S. military presence.

We will never see real change unless and until we demand it. Visit www.secorforcongress.com

I'm your Independent Candidate for our 50th Congressional District, Republic of California. Like you, I'm committed to making your voice heard in Congress. Like you, I aspire for our government to work hard for you and our families; together we play an active role in making America, a safer, better place to raise our children, run our businesses, and forge a future filled with unlimited promise and opportunity.

As your Representative in our Congress, I will faithfully serve your needs, concerns and expectations through education by innovation (www.california.school), reasonable environmental legislation, energy independence, economic development for job creation, infrastructure modernization and a successful foreign policy that secures our national security. I will be true to our United States Constitution as a Christian.

If you share my vision, I invite you to commit with me to build our government of the People, by the People, for the People. Together, you and I can recommit to making this election, a statement of faith that will make a difference for our family, friends and America.! As a parent, educator, youth pastor and technologist, I will embolden bipartisan fellowship, spark new ideas, and deliver solutions to our policy making in Washington DC and empower California citizens with 24/7 public service. STATE ASSEMBLY
75th District

MARIE WALDRON
Businessowner/Assemblymember

I Support: Job Creation by cutting taxes and burdensome regulations on working families and businesses; Reliable and Affordable Water supply for our economy, families and farms; Strong Education for success and job training

Proven Taxfighter: Californians are over taxed: the highest in the nation! We must cut gas taxes and create efficient and affordable energy to become more competitive as a state

I Mean Business and Jobs. A small businessowner for 22 years, I understand the impact of unfair government regulations, taxes and fees. That is why I have a "A" Rating by the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association. Business growth means success, jobs and employment.

Education dollars should be spent in the classroom to help teachers do their job and students succeed – not on bureaucrats. School choice and competition benefit our students.

Proven Record: As a city councilmember in Escondido for 14 years, I supported a balanced budget, water affordability and protecting individual liberties. Water storage, desalinization and water reclamation are critical for our prosperity as a region. I've continued fighting for you as your State Assemblymember.

As a parent, I'm concerned about our childrens' future. I stand to protect our traditional family values and our veterans for benefits, housing and healthcare.

Active over 25 years in our community and church, I support many local civic organizations, including the Boy Scouts, Little League and YMCA. My husband and I work to create the successful "Cruisin' Grand" hotrod event in downtown Escondido for the past 17 years.
